SMALL TALK

Patricia and Francis at Carroll & Norwood's.

Bessie & Tom leave El Paso.

Bettie Teeny leaves this evening for her home in El Paso.

Mary and Billie-Mom of El Paso have been visiting their grandmother, Mrs. W. W. Anderson, and will return home this evening.

Jack Green, Anita Johnson and Mr. Waggoner leave today for Marfa, Kit Springs. Mrs. Waggoner and Miss Dykes will return with them tomorrow.

Eddie Ferguson, the world famous screen star, will be here in the most dramatic role of his career, in "The Lie," a superb Artcraft photoplay, at the Columbia Theater Sunday. It is an absorbing story of self-sacrifice by a woman to save the honor of her dying sister. A wholesome story, dramatically told and every scene filled with thrills and heart appeal.

Wire Mother.
Send your mother a telegram to-morrow—Mother's Day.

Hetty Teeny Honored.
A farewell dinner to Miss Hetty Teeny, promising young El Paso "girl" who is the guest of Dolia Johnson, will be given at the Community Club this evening. The usual good time is expected. Unusual musical preparations are being made.

We Believe in Columbus!

Do You?

We believe in Columbus to the extent that we have invested about fifteen thousand good dollars in our new building and new equipment. Our weekly payroll, amounting to five and six hundred dollars, is being spent every week with the merchants of Columbus, and naturally stays in Columbus. Possibly you are getting some of it. If you do not, it is your fault. If you send your business west to El Paso, how much of that money comes back to your home merchant or to you?

In the course of a very short time our plant will be fully equipped with all the latest machinery that money can buy, and with your cooperation and patronage we will succeed and be able to give you better work and better service. Without your support we will surely fail, just as your grocer and butcher will fail if you patronize Denby or El Paso merchants.

Study this matter over when you have leisure to read out. This phone us and we will call for it, and when finished we will return it. If nicely done, and if you are not perfectly satisfied we will gladly refund your money. Can you ask any more?

SOME ONE WAS SAYING

By Harry and Helen.

That police shirts worn in the mud at the "Skirtless" ball last night. We told you they should have undershirt dresses. Wouldn't they make "home", too?

That if any one has ever heard the song "Somebody" sang by Bert Williams, apply it to the dance given by M. Romberg—the second very well.

That a few of the 25th Infantry players lost their "ice caps" in yesterday's game—and other people we know lost the contents of their pocket books.

That the blouson out on the 25th Infantry ball diamond must believe in going on a strike—a few of them just naturally refused to hold any one, and then collapsed under the strain. Yet, we are going to have some new ones pretty soon.

That in addition to the ball game there was an added attraction in the form of a battle duel between Sergeant Scammon and Corporal Johnson which was broken up before any physical damage was done. George Scammon has been making a reputation for the last few days by the many art of self-protection.

That the good music played by the 25th Infantry band at the game was due to the new water faucet which has been installed near the bandstand. Every time in a while one of the bandmen would run out and fill his horn up with water—for what we don't know—but one thing we didn't was the guy who beats the bass drum fill it up with water. This certainly is a dry "old world"—everything and everybody feels the effects of Prohibition.

That my public reply is taking the ring off, he has reached the quarter-century mark today.

That Sergeant Roger and Heron of the 25th Infantry team played the game in first-class style—with a few exceptions.

What About You, Anyway?

A dance was given last night at the Community Hall in honor of Miss Hetty Teeny of El Paso, who is visiting Miss Dolia Johnson, a visitor.

Henry's jazz orchestra furnished the music and it was an enjoyable occasion for everyone present.

The usual Saturday night "host" will be great tonight and it is hoped that many more will be present.—The Night Owl.

Germany's bluff at disengagement seems to be about as weak as her attempts to dislodge the problem of union.

Maybe the best reason Debs has for not participating in this presidential election is the warden will let him.

MOTHER'S DAY SERVICE

AT METHODIST CHURCH

Sunday, May 8. Mother's Day. Mothers especially are invited to attend the 10 o'clock service at the Methodist Church. Ministers and children are asked to sit with their mothers, thus honoring them. Mrs. Justice will give a brief talk on "Women's Duties." Carver, special music will also be a feature of the occasion.

The Children's Home at Abiquiu asks that on Mother's Day an offering be taken in the church for the home. We hope that in our service pocket houses will be opened widely when the collection plates are passed.

On May 12, 1917, Florence Nightingale, the founder of the profession of modern nursing, would have been 80. The organization of the Red Cross, founded, has given the name of the organization to its annual nursing week. The name of Florence Nightingale is about to change again—so far as the name of the organization is concerned. The name of the organization will be changed to the name of the matron, and the name of the organization will be changed to the name of the matron.

IOWA SENATOR EXPOSES

A MATTER OF POLITICS

[By Associated Press.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 8.— Senator Keegan of Iowa, speaking in the Senate chamber yesterday, declared the E. J. Du Pont de Nemours company of Delaware had virtually decided itself against General Leonard Wood's candidacy for the presidential nomination unless Senator Moses of New Hampshire, one of Wood's campaign managers, withdrew his opposition to the dye bill now before the Senate.

Senator Keegan read a letter from Charles Weston, the manager of the company's publicity department, in Senator Moses' declaration Moses' opposition to the dye bill was not in accord with the expressed views of General Wood, and asking for an explanation of his opposition to the measure.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have countersigned my hand and affixed the seal of said Court, this 10th day of May, A. D. 1918.
